We are very grateful for the generosity shown by so many parishioners to our "Annual Collection." If you have not yet had an opportunity to return your gift card, please do so as soon as possible. Your completed gift card can be returned to the parish office by mail or placed in the Sunday collection basket. Every gift is welcome and sincerely appreciated. Thank you!

On behalf of Father Matthew Cherian,
our parish deacons, and the entire staff
of St. Pio of Pietrelcina Parish,
I would like to wish everyone a very happy and holy Christmas. As we celebrate the feast of Christmas this year, we are reminded once again that God loves us so much that he sent His only begotten Son, the Prince of Peace, to be born in the midst of this fallen world to redeem us from sin. The mystery of the Incarnation makes us joyful in knowing that God did not, and does not, abandon us, but that He who became man knows our joys and sufferings, and is always with us. May you share that message by wishing everyone a "Merry Christmas"
rather than a vague "Happy Holidays,"
and may the Peace of Christ be with you and yours this Christmas Season and always.

The Nativity of the Lord

Our hearts are aglow with the joy of Christmas! Our senses are alive with the season, from the rich smells of evergreen and gingerbread to the feel of crisp air on our skin and the warmth of a loved one's embrace. At some point in the holiday hustle and bustle, take a few moments of quiet. In the silence, reflect on the other senses of the season. Imagine the cool damp of an animal stable, the earthy smell of hay and feed, and the crisp night air blowing in softly. Imagine kneeling beside an exhausted, joyful mother and a relieved, protective father. Imagine an infant wrapped in cloth scraps held out to your open arms. Imagine holding the infant Jesus. As his eyes meet yours, welcome into your heart the greatest gift of Christmas!

Teens from St. Ann Parish Youth Ministry in Avon wrap holiday gifts destined for U.S. military men and women at a “Boxes to Boots” event held at New Britain High School.

AVON TEENS JOIN IN SENDING GIFTS TO MILITARY FOR THE HOLIDAYS

On a Saturday in November, 15 teens from St. Ann Parish in Avon spent their morning serving the men and women who protect our country far from home.

In the gymnasium of New Britain High School, they joined hundreds of other people from throughout Central Connecticut in wrapping and packing food gifts for military members in time for the Christmas holiday.

“It’s important to help. Some deployed members don’t have family looking out for them,” says Victoria Borisov, a St. Ann Youth Ministry member who is in the eighth grade. “A big part of our Catholic faith is helping others, and this fits with that. It’s a good cause.”

“Service work is important when you’re Catholic,” adds Henry Madison, a seventh grade youth ministry member. “We’re here to support the men and women overseas, so they can have the holiday spirit. I wish I could do more.”

This service activity is one of many good works performed by the St. Ann Parish Youth Ministry. The Avon teens were escorted by Caroline Mascoli, the new director of youth ministry for the parish as of last September.

Mascoli is encouraging the youth ministry members, especially those who are confirmation candidates, to put in at least eight hours of service for the year. “For confirmation candidates, we’re trying to follow the Corporal Works of Mercy and find events and activities related to that,” she says.

Students fulfill three categories of service: (1) individual, (2) with family and (3) with a group.

Mascoli chose the “Boxes to Boots” group event, which she had heard about from other high school groups. “It was top of my list because I knew it would be a great way to get kids involved in the community,” she says. “And, I have two brothers in the Marines, so it hits close to home for me and will for the students here as well.

The “Operation Cares 2025—Giving Thanks to Our Troops” event was sponsored by “Boxes to Boots,” a nonprofit started in 2015 by Karen Cote, a military mom in Berlin. At the 2025 event, the Avon teens and hundreds of others worked at 90 tables packing care packages of breakfast treats and snacks, and fun gifts such as Frisbees, for 1,800 to 1,900 service members.

“It was so nice that active military were here to make it even more meaningful,” Mascoli notes. Some local military members, such as the ROTC and the Connecticut National Guard, were present packing boxes, receiving boxes and loading the trucks.

Mascoli’s fiancée, Sean Murphy, accompanied the Avon teens. “It’s wonderful,” he says of the event, which also included a DJ playing popular dance music. “It’s such a fun way to get them involved with community and start them out.”

Mateo Garza, a senior in high school, recently joined the St. Ann Youth Ministry. “I just learned about this group and events and want to go to more. I felt connected to the people and the others but also to God himself,” he says.

“We were writing Bible verses on cards,” Garza adds, “and if one of those verses can get along to a soldier, it can bring faith to them as well.”

Dear Parish Family of St. Pio of Pietrelcina,

On behalf of our Giving Tree Elves and Father Walsh, we would like to extend our most heartfelt appreciation to all who contributed to and participated in our 2025 Giving Tree.

The outpouring of donations from our parish family was remarkable, and we were able to help 70 families share in our own Christmas joy and shine the light of Christ brightly on those in most need during this season of Advent.

As we joyfully celebrate the birth of our Lord Jesus Christ and fulfill our commitment to Him through the Corporal and Spiritual Works of Mercy, we ask that you continue to pray for those who are struggling to make ends meet and share the blessings that our God has bestowed upon us.

God is Good...all the time and All the time...God is Good.

Blessings and Peace be with you all,
